Welcome back! We hope your summer was fantastic!

The Psychology Department recently participated in the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge in honor of our colleague, Dr. Steve Reznick, who was recently diagnosed with ALS. Steve has chosen the Duke ALS Clinic for our donations. If you’d still like to donate, mail a check to Duke ALS Clinic, 932 Morreene Road, Durham, NC 27705, or donate online through their website.

Congratulations to Dr. Mitch Prinstein, who was named the “John Van Seters Distinguished Professor of Psychology” at UNC.

Congratulations to Donte Bernard, who was one of three graduate student poster award winners at The Third Biennial APA Division 45 (Society for the Psychological Study of Culture, Ethnicity and Race) Conference in Eugene, Oregon in June 2014. Award winners were chosen on the basis of “student poster presentations characterized by excellence in research, depth of understanding, and clarity in presentation.”

Congratulations to Dr. Eric Youngstrom, who has been named the next president of Division 53 of APA, the Society of Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology.

Keith Payne was the keynote speaker for the August 13th THINK-posium, a free exchange of ideas focused on implicit bias and its effect on classroom instruction and hiring practices.

Save the date for the Spring 2015 Alum Award Colloquium. Dr. Sliman J. Bensmaia will be speaking on Wednesday, March 25, 2015 from 3:30-4:30PM in Davie 112 about “Biological and bionic hands: Natural neural coding and artificial perception.”

The Karen M. Gil Internship program has officially begun its inaugural semester. With 10 incredibly bright and talented interns placed at various locations throughout the Triangle location, the Gil staff is extremely excited to see this program come to life. We’re ALWAYS looking for new leads and contacts, especially in some of the harder-to-place sub-fields of psychology (Behavioral Neuroscience, Cognitive, Social, Developmental). Please contact Dana Ripperton with any potential leads or information.

In August, the Administrative Staff welcomed Kylie Zhao as an accounting technician. Kylie provides accounting support for the Clinical, Quantitative, and Social Programs and also serves as the Department’s P-card reconciler. Kylie recently relocated to North Carolina from New Mexico where she received a Master’s Degree in Accounting from the University of New Mexico.

The Administrative Staff also welcomed Alem Woreta as an accounting assistant. He is a recent graduate from UNC-CH with a Bachelor’s Degree in Economics. Alem will provide general processing and administrative support to the accounting staff. Both Kylie and Alem are located in Davie 207.
