The Carolina Center for Public Service honored 307 graduating seniors as Buckley Public Service Scholars on May 11, 2018. The Buckley Public Service Scholars program encourages students to learn about and practice public service and engagement beyond the scope of traditional volunteerism. To gain designation as a Buckley Public Service Scholar, students must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 and build a portfolio with a minimum of 300 hours of service, one service learning course, and a final reflection project. Most of the 2018 graduates exceeded those requirements, on average completing more than 440 hours of service.
