Department News

Dr. Stacey Daughters, Professor of Clinical Psychology, is the 2021 recipient of the Ann Rankin Cowan Excellence Award for High-Impact Research in Psychology and Neuroscience. The aim of the $20,000 Cowan Excellence Award is to provide a faculty member with seed funding to launch the innovative and meaningful early-stage research necessary to apply for external funding. This award is made possible through the generous support of Ann Rankin Cowan (Psychology '75). Dr. Daughters was chosen for her work using novel methods such as functional magnetic resonance imaging and noninvasive brain stimulation to study the behavioral and neural mechanisms contributing to the etiology and treatment of substance use disorder.

Valerie Langlois, a graduate student in Cognitive Psychology, is the recipient of a 2021 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant in Linguistics. Research improvement grants are provided to enhance and improve dissertation projects that will contribute to the advancement of the science of language and linguistics. Valerie received a grant for her dissertation project, "Investigating the role of distribution in syntactic comprehension."

Madeline Robertson, a graduate student in Behavioral and Integrative Neuroscience, received a Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) from the National Institute on Drug Abuse. The purpose of the NRSA predoctoral fellowship award is to enhance the individual's potential to develop into a productive, independent research scientist. Under this fellowship, Maddy will investigate excitatory/inhibitory balance and behavioral flexibility in adults with a history of adolescent binge drinking.

Hour of Action

The Hour of Action in Psychology and Neuroscience began in June 2020 on behalf of the Clinical Program's Diversity Training Committee and is meant to provide a communal space and resource list to channel our anti-racist and diversity/equity-oriented actions. Historically, HOAs have been Fridays from 4—5 PM, but we are shifting the meeting time effective Spring 2021 to Fridays from 3—4 PM.

You will no longer receive a weekly reminder email. Instead, please utilize a recurring Google calendar link that you can integrate into your existing weekly calendar. For Outlook users, a recurring Outlook event was emailed separately.

The ongoing list of resources can be found in this Google document.

You will receive a monthly reminder of these events with relevant links going forward.

Students, faculty, and staff from across the Department are welcome to attend and we strongly encourage groups dedicated to DEI initiatives to bring their committee work/meetings to the HOA.
